

AOA/ACGME
Merger:
Must Knows,
Updates, and Results

Geoffrey B. Comp, DO, FAWM
Associate Program Director- Creighton
University School of Medicine/Valleywise Health
Medical Center (Phoenix) Emergency Medicine
Residency

1

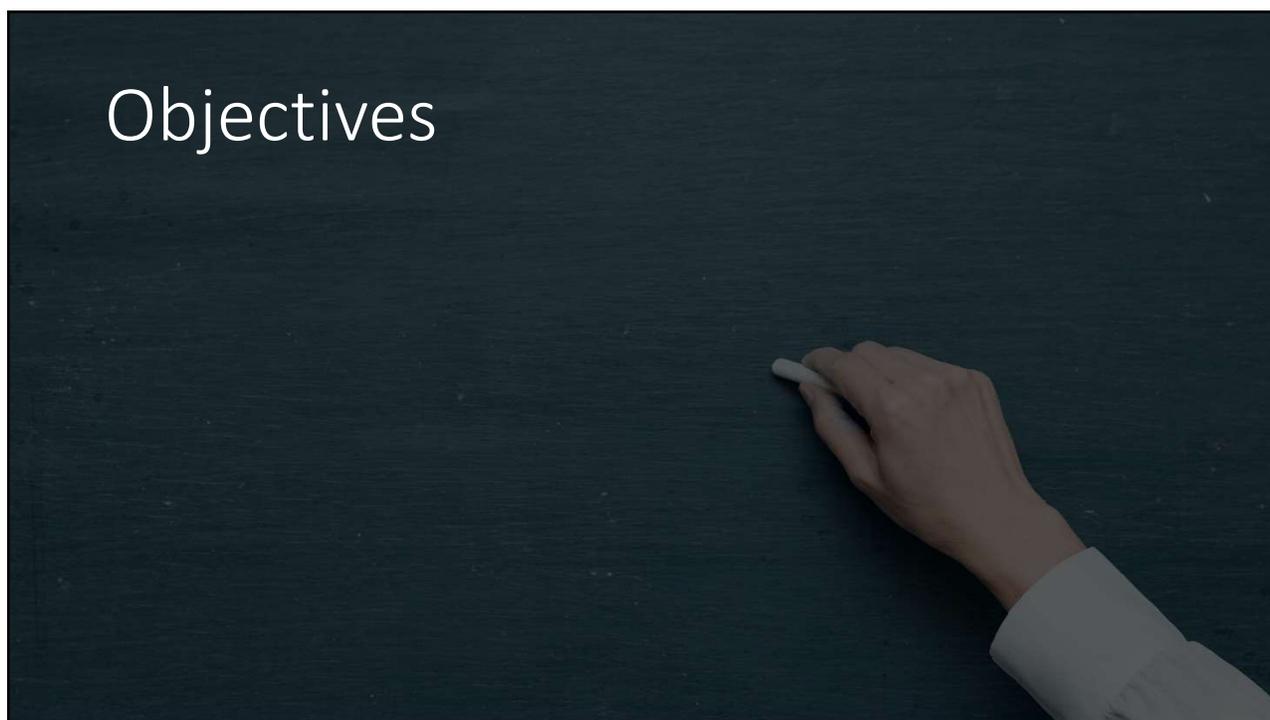

No financial disclosures

2

3

4

Objectives

- Provide background about the ACGME-AOA program merger

5

Objectives

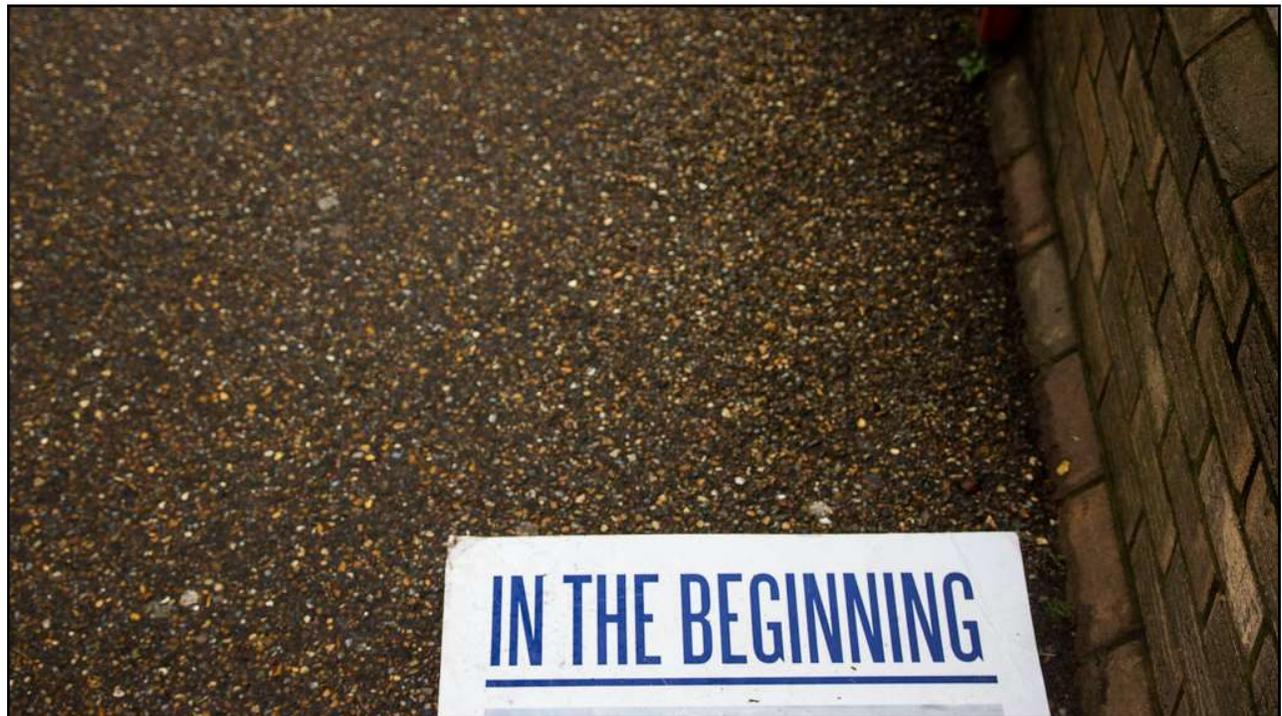

- Provide background about the ACGME-AOA program merger
- Describe how osteopathic physicians are still represented and supported through this system

6

Objectives

- Provide background about the ACGME-AOA program merger
- Describe how osteopathic physicians are still represented and supported through this system
- Discuss how to continue to advocate and mentor our students applying to their residency of choice

7

8

9

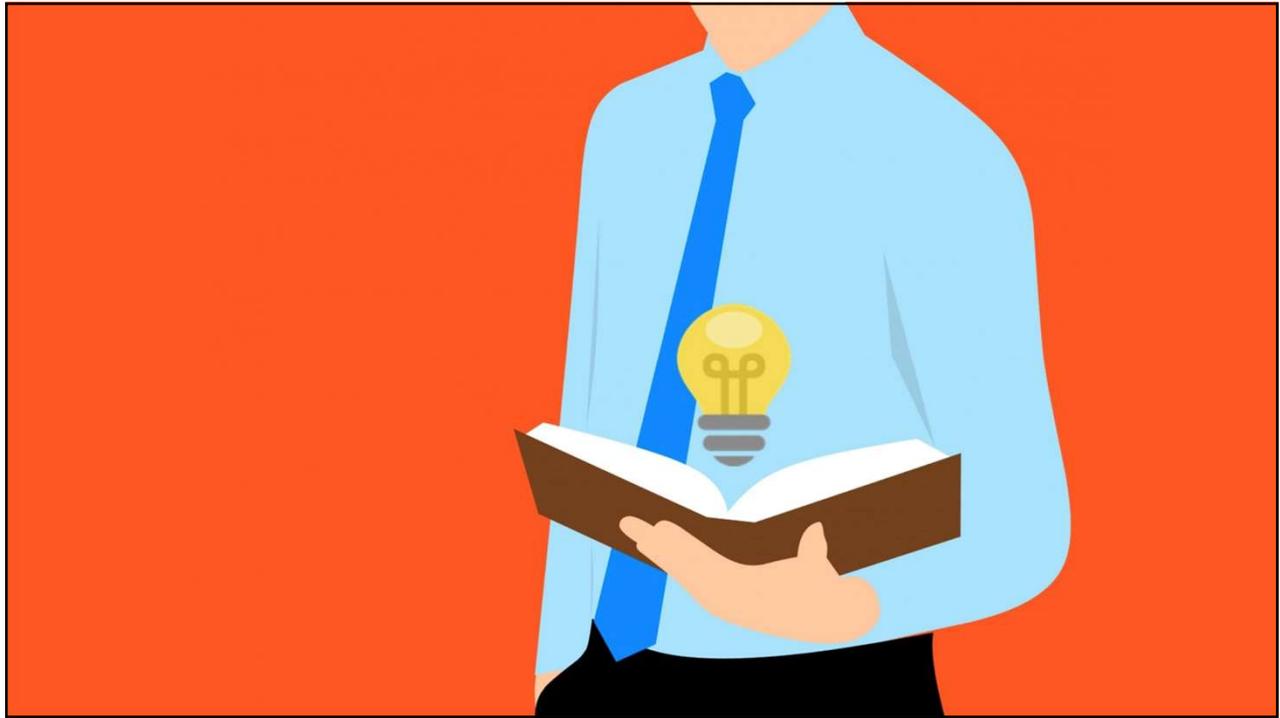

10

11

12

13

14

- Provide uniform graduate medical education accreditation
- Increase collaboration

15

- Provide uniform graduate medical education accreditation
- Increase collaboration
- Increase efficiencies

16

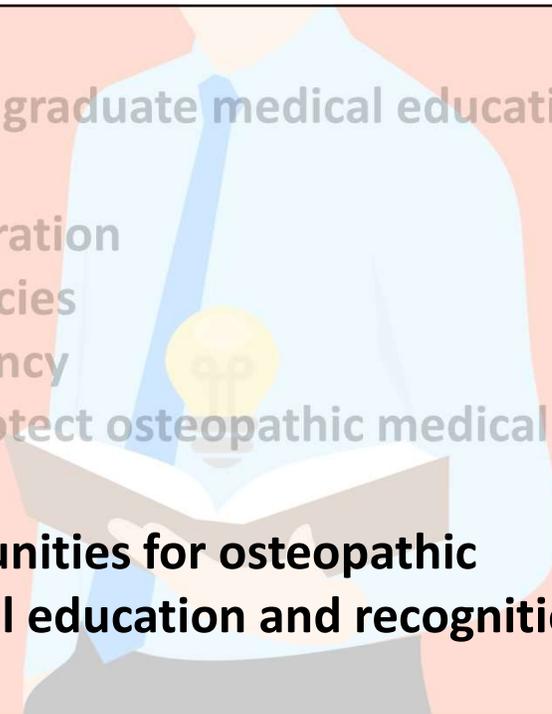

- Provide uniform graduate medical education accreditation
- Increase collaboration
- Increase efficiencies
- Provide consistency

17

- Provide uniform graduate medical education accreditation
- Increase collaboration
- Increase efficiencies
- Provide consistency
- Preserve and protect osteopathic medical education

18

-
- Provide uniform graduate medical education accreditation
 - Increase collaboration
 - Increase efficiencies
 - Provide consistency
 - Preserve and protect osteopathic medical education
 - Increase opportunities for osteopathic graduate medical education and recognition

19

20

21

22

23

24

Program Accreditation

25

Osteopathic Recognition

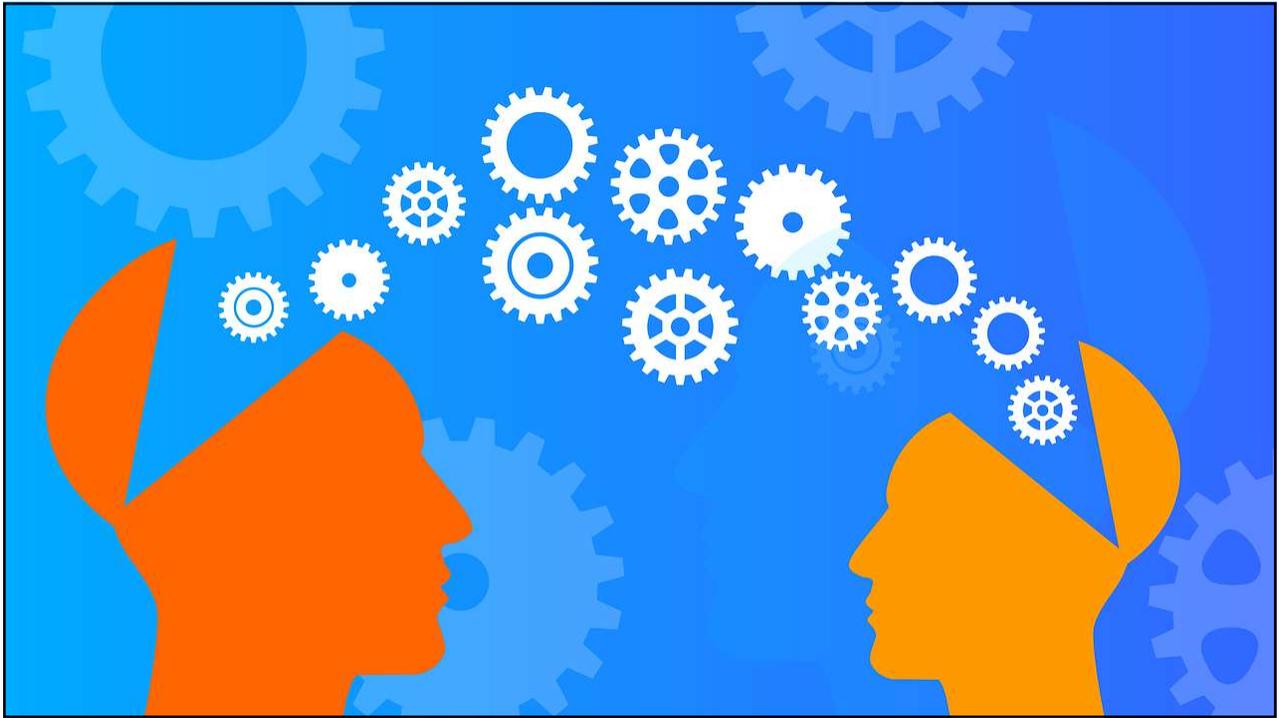

26

27

28

29

30

Questions?

Geoffbc@gmail.com

 @gbcomp